but has spent most of his life in this country, as when nine years old he came to Pittsburg, Pa., in which state at Brockport, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brunberg, now reside. In Pittsburg Mr. Brunberg became a railroad man, and while engaged in that calling, six years ago the 15th of January, met with an accident that cost him both arms and a leg. With remarkable courage the young man did not despair and give up the fight and is still in the race today. Mr. Brunberg came to Greenville two years and a half ago and has since built up a good grocery business, being located on Boswell avenue at the present time. His genial disposition has gained

WILL VISIT SCOTLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Murray Leave Friday for Several Months' Trip to Glasgow.On Friday of this week, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Murray of Golden street leave for a visit of several months to Scotland. They will be the guests of her brother, John Alston and family.
It is not the first trip that Mrs. Murray has made to the mother country, but will be the third in the past two years. Mrs. Murray revisited her early home five years ago and also about five years before that. Her husband, however, who was born in this country, crossing the water will be a novel and interesting experience.
They sail on the Calcutta of the Aus-tor line. For the past thirty-seven years Mr. and Mrs. Murray have been residents of Greenville and all the friends they have made in that time wish them a most pleasant voyage and enjoyable visit.Killed Eight-Pound Woodchuck.
Chester Wright of the West Side was returning from Taftville Monday morning and when he neared the century aged woodchuck on the walk.
He reached out with his whip and laid his victim low. He took him home and is now undoubtedly enjoying woodchuck pie or some other palatable dish.

25 Speckled Beauties.

When Conductor William H. Sweet starts out early in the morning with his little hook and line, it means that before the day is over something will be doing among the trout of the Aus-tor master of the art of angling chiefly confines his energies to the speckled beauties. And when he is accompanied by another fisherman such as Motorman Herman Soules, it is not at all surprising that they bring back home a string of 25 big ones. This is what happened when these two fished the brooks out Salem a few days ago and started the farmers out in that section with their fine catch.
